The Kargs are deeply resistant to writing of any kind, considering it to be sorcerous and wicked. They keep complex accounts and records in weavings of different colors and weights of yarn, and are expert mathematicians, using base twelve; but only since the Godkings came to power have they employed any kind of symbolic writing, and that sparingly. Bureaucrats and tradesmen of the Empire adapted the Hardic runes to Kargish, with some simplifications and additions, for purposes of business and diplomacy. But Kargish priests never learn writing; and many Kargs still write every Hardic rune with a light stroke through it, to cancel out the sorcery that lurks in it..It seemed that from Roke Knoll the whole extent of the Grove could be seen, yet if you walked in it you did not always come out into the fields again. You walked on under the trees. In the inner Grove they were all of one kind, which grew nowhere else, yet had no name in Hardic but "tree" In the Old Speech, Ember said, each of those trees had its own name. You walked on, and after a time you were walking again among familiar trees, oak and beech and ash, chestnut and walnut and willow, green in spring and bare in winter; there were dark firs, and cedar, and a tall evergreen Medra did not know, with soft reddish bark and layered foliage. You walked on, and the way through the trees was never twice the same. People in Thwil told him it was best not to go too far, since only by returning as you went could you be sure of coming out into the fields..since the North Reach is isolated and thinly populated, and the Kargad people have held themselves..Down in their tiny cabin Dragonfly sat waiting for him, solemn as ever but her eyes blazing with excitement. "We'll go ashore in the morning," he repeated to her, and she nodded, acceptant.."So?" said the Namer, more drily..He knew it was well to use caution with this man. Otter had defeated Tinaral, and there was this..your bed," she said. "There's no fire in that room. Did you meet weather, up on the mountain? They..Instinctively I rubbed my hand on my trousers. Now I was standing in front of that room filled..Three of them came forward: an old man, big and broad-chested, with bright white hair, and two women. Wizard knows wizard, and Medra knew they were women of power..differentiation ("division of labor") than in the Archipelago..your horse up and see to him. There's the pump, there's plenty of hay. Come on in the house after..And they study there just to get richer. Or to get power..". "We all do harm by being," said the Patterner..from other witches and from sorcerers, not from wizards. What we teach here is in a language not..The new student cleaned out the henhouse and hoed the bean-patch, learned the meaning of the Glosses of Danemer and the Arcana of the Enlades, and kept his mouth closed. He listened. He heard what Dulse said; sometimes he heard what Dulse thought. He did what Dulse wanted and what Dulse did not know he wanted. His gift was far beyond Dulse's guidance, yet he had been right to come to Re Albi, and they both knew it..asked them..She had no wish to explore for herself. The peacefulness of the place called for stillness..The Changer stood silent, and then he said quietly, with respect, "My friend, what is it you think to do, to learn? What is she, that you ask this for her?". These legends are best preserved in Hur-at-Hur, the easternmost of the Kargad Lands, where dragons have degenerated into animals without high intelligence. Yet it is in Hur-at-Hur that people keep the most vivid conviction of the original kinship of human and dragon kind. And with these tales of ancient times come stories of recent days about dragons who take human form, humans who take dragon form, beings who are in fact both human and dragon..Once, when they had gone a long way and the trees, dark evergreens she did not know, stood very high about them, she heard a call - a horn blowing, a cry? - remote, on the very edge of hearing. She stood still, listening towards the west. The mage walked on, turning only when he realized she had stopped.. "What afterward?". "Do you know the way in?" His almond-shaped eyes were attentive, yet seemed to look at her from miles or years away..learn a few hundred to several thousand of these characters as a major part of their few years of..wraithily. She stood straight and said nothing..No wind. No birdcall. No distant lowing or bleating or call of voice. As if all the island had gone still. Not a fly buzzed..He could no longer see the chambers and passages of the cave as he had seen them with the uncaring, disembodied eye. "maybe the pressure of my foot on the threshold was enough. The elevator took a long time going..Now Medra felt that he had been asked the question on which the rest of his life hung, for good or..One day in autumn he came back to the school. He went in by the garden door, which gives on the path through the fields to Roke Knoll. It is a curious thing about the Great House of Roke, that it has no portal or grand entryway at all. You can enter by what they call the back door, which, though it is made of horn and framed in dragons tooth and carved with the Thousand-Leaved Tree, looks like nothing at all from outside, as you come to it in a dingy street; or you can go in the garden door, plain oak with an iron bolt. But there is no front door..Maharion died a few years after Erreth-Akbe, having seen no peace established, and much unrest and.. "We have to finish the work here," he told her, and she looked at him mildly. All animals were..you!" She sprang up the bank, pulling herself up by the tough bunchgrass, and scrambled to her..A chill ran through her. The water ran cold. Gathering herself together, her limbs still soft and loose, she looked up and saw on the bank above her the black figure of a man.. "Well. . . yes, in a sense, yes. I don't design, I only make. . .". the land altered with time and chance..She said, "Do I look all right?". "Beginnings," said Tern..MAHARION AND ERRETH-AKBE.. "What else can you do, Diamond?" he asked.. "I won't sail my boat across Havnor, dear love. I plan to go around it. By water." He could always make her laugh; he was the only one who could. When he was away, she was quiet-voiced and even-tempered, having learned the uselessness of impatience in the work that must be done. Sometimes she still scowled, sometimes she smiled, but she did not laugh. When she could, she went to the Grove alone, as she had always done. But in these years of the building of the House and the founding of the school, she could go there seldom, and even then she might take a couple of students to learn with her the ways through the forest and the patterns of the leaves; for she was the Patterner.. "What's Alder paying you for all this?" she demanded while the water was heating. She was still indignant, speaking more bluntly even than usual..for a man it's only one thing ever. But I miss hearing you sing.. "You might keep some goats," Silence said.. "It's not my word, it's Waris's. But
